

3)

For this question we decided to predict the patient using PCA on all data. We Came to the conclusion that the overwhelming majority of patients are found around the (0, 0) point. Also we fond a small trail of patients going to the right. We can assume these are the patients with a late stage considering that as the stage increased, there were fewer patients

